

Farm Emergency Contact Information

Use this form to as a quick reference for ALL staff and personnel to expedite how emergency contact information is distributed. There needs to be a communication chain established at the outset of the emergency event to assure only the proper persons with authority to represent the farm are making the emergency contacts.

| General Emergency Numbers             |              |
|---------------------------------------|--------------|
| Medical/Police/Fire                   | 911          |
| Poison Control Center (human)         | 800-722-5725 |
| ASPCA Poison Control Center (animals) | 888-426-4435 |
| FEMA                                  | 800-621-3362 |
| American Red Cross                    | 800-564-1234 |

Listen to weather radio for must current weather conditions. Note the radio or television stations to observe to determine the plan of action to take.

Radio Station[s] _____ Television Channel[s] _____

Alert emergency personnel as they arrive on the farm to human and horse medical conditions/allergies, nature of the emergency, and any hazardous materials and/or situations, including loose horses.

On farm emergency contact person, person with authority for farm _____

| Farm Emergency Contacts |                       |              |
|-------------------------|-----------------------|--------------|
| Name                    | Relation to Farm      | Phone(s)     |
| Example: Frank Smith    | Horse Owner- Star Lad | 123-456-7890 |
|                         |                       |              |
|                         |                       |              |
|                         |                       |              |
|                         |                       |              |

| Nearest Hospitals       |                  |           |               |
|-------------------------|------------------|-----------|---------------|
| Name                    | Address          | Distance  | Phone         |
| Example: St Joseph East | Harrodsburg Road | 5.6 miles | 859-555-12134 |
|                         |                  |           |               |
|                         |                  |           |               |

In case of emergency evacuation:

Primary Location: _____

Secondary Location: _____